

On-Campus Grilling Policy

Summary

Columbus State University allows on-campus grilling provided individuals/groups abide by particular stipulations and prohibitions that related to time of day, location, and grilling equipment and supplies.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to outline the particular stipulations and prohibitions by which individuals/groups have to abide by in order to grill on campus.

Policy

Grilling events must be reserved with and approved by the Department of Campus Services. All campus grilling must end by 9 p.m.

Portable gas grills are allowed on campus-grounds.

Flammable items such as lighter fluid may not be stored on campus, except in approved fireproof cabinets.

A fire extinguisher is required which will be provided by EHS&RM.

The individual reserving the space is responsible for safety during the grilling event. Use of alcohol is prohibited.

Charcoal Grills are prohibited.

Resources Available

A limited number of gas grills are available for use by CSU- Affiliated entities (CSU Student Groups, Clubs, CSU Departments). These grills are only permitted at grilling areas including, but not limited to the Mock Pavilion, Clocktower, and Lumpkin side yard. Please submit an equest for use of gas grills.

Propane is available at $35.00 per tank. Please include this need in your equest for event services.

Grills returned dirty will ensure a $50.00 fee is charged back to the reserving organization.
